

Agents

Guildford College is always seeking high quality representation around the world.

We hope we can say that we service the needs of our agents and their clients well. To this end we maintain a separate web system for agents, and regularly update our agents with news and information. We also work closely with agents to develop markets and are open to new ideas, programmes, and service ideas.

We take relationships with our agents very seriously and do our best to provide a service to agents as customers to international standards of responsiveness and accountability.

We also manage our relationships with efficient email and web based communications.

If you are interested in becoming an agent, or renewing a relationship with us, please complete the adjacent Agent Questionnaire or contact.
